The third staging of the The Twilight Ultra takes place at the Redbridge Cycle Centre in south east London. The secure, traffic free undulating tarmac route sees runners covering laps of the cycle circuit and finishing on what will, hopefully, be a balmy summers evening. With good parking and spectating facilities, the event features a choice of three distances with start times varying according to the distance you select. Aim high and select the ultra distance and you can always step down to a shorter distance after you have started.

 Well stocked aid stations on each lap with hot and cold food and drink. *****
